

Practice Sentences For Voice Over Artists

Your Turn: These are sentences you can use to practice or warm up. The first 13 focus on enunciation while the final 5 are “Understanding Speech Test Sentences” published by the New York Times, January 11, 2025.

- The river bared its bosom and snoring steamboats challenged the wilderness.
- Their love burned with increasing brightness.
- They were artists not biologists.
- Both Johnny and his mother shuffled their feet as they walked.
- And, as if in denial of all guilt, the one-legged boy replied.
- Burnt out like the crater of a volcano.
- The boy, O'Brien, was especially maltreated.
- O'Brien took off his coat and bared his right arm.
- He bore no grudges and had few enemies.
- And Tom King patiently endured.
- King took every advantage he knew.
- The lines were now very taut.
- And right there I saw and knew it all.
- It's easy to tell the depth of a well.
- The hogs were fed chopped corn and garbage.
- Help the woman get back to her feet.
- The harder he tried the less he got done.
- It caught its hind paw in the rusty trap.
- Write a fond note to the friend you cherish.
- Most of the news is easy for us to hear.